Text Responses

Aspects of course that contributed to learning

(ENGL 3309) The assignments helped a lot to prepare for the project we had to turn in. Reading the project description seemed scary until you start doing the individual assignments, then it just writes itself almost.

(ENGL 3309) Prof Burry was incredible! He was very outgoing and made going to an 8am much easier! The assignments he gave out were always clear and concise. I felt like the assignments I was completing I would actually be doing out in the real world and it gave me a real world perspective.

(ENGL 3309) Teacher actually taught

(ENGL 3309) I found the textbook and weekly assignments very useful when I was constructing each project throughout the course. I learned a lot from each project as well since this is not something I was ever taught before. Going over specific aspects of the projects in class also allowed me to be successful in this class.

(ENGL 3309) Overall great class and considering I will be taking the upper level course with the same teacher really makes me excited for the material.

(ENGL 3309) I liked having a rough draft for each project because we had a chance to fix our projects

(ENGL 3309) Before this class I was not confident in creating professional documents. With all of the assignments provided that contributed towards our big projects this helped immensely.

(ENGL 3309) I liked when we went over assignments in class and talked through them together.

Atmosphere conducive to learning

(ENGL 3309) It was a very interactive class and the assignments/project were made a lot clearer if you showed up to class

(ENGL 3309) Professor Burry really expressed his personality in his material making the atmosphere very welcoming.

(ENGL 3309) Yes! Most everyone attended for it being an 8am but he is such an outgoing guy that it made the class for conducive to learning the material and wanting to be there.

(ENGL 3309) Yes. It was very positive and encouraging in the aspect of asking questions if needed. I was able to better my work after each class.

(ENGL 3309) Yes

(ENGL 3309) The class atmosphere was fun but also engaging

(ENGL 3309) Yes, we learned what we needed to with the time given each class

(ENGL 3309) Yes

Suggestions to improve teaching

(ENGL 3309) Sooo many assignments due in the week, it's helpful, yes, but it's also excessive. Followed a suggestion from, instructor once and got criticized for it when it was graded.

(ENGL 3309) I honestly think there is nothing for him to change. the group work was tough and by all means it was not his fault the way my group turned out but that's the only gripe I have with the class.

(ENGL 3309) Not overloading students with so many assignments. We would have at least 6-8 assignments for the class alone for the week which is over whelming for one singular class. I would almost half that or drop a couple of them.

(ENGL 3309) I understand not everyone benefits from individual feedback and liked the CFF and the fact that individual feedback takes a while, but as a personal preference I do better after receiving that individual deeper feedback so none of the small details are overlooked. Sometimes doing revisions were hard without having that specific feedback since this is not a class I am familiar with.

(ENGL 3309) Make online assignments more clear
(ENGL 3309) Explaining how to do projects in a greater detail and the expectations for them
(ENGL 3309) Fewer daily assignments because sometimes the assignments he gave us didn't really help with the project and were very confusing for no reason
(ENGL 3309) Sometimes I thought there was a lot going on and it was hard to keep up. I also thought it was hard to find certain information in Canvas sometimes.
Additional feedback
(ENGL 3309) none
(ENGL 3309) Prof Burry I would highly recommend taking! I felt like I got a good real world experience through my assignments out of him.
